Part I Taxpayer Identification Number (TIN)

Enter your TIN in the appropriate box. The TIN provided must match the name given on the "Name" line to avoid backup withholding. For individuals, this is your social security number (SSN). However, for a resident alien, sole proprietor, or disregarded entity, see the Part I instructions on page 3. For other entities, it is your employer identification number (EIN). If you do not have a number, see How to get a TIN on page 3.

Note. If the account is in more than one name, see the chart on page 4 for guidelines on whose number to enter.

Part II Certification

Under penalties of perjury, I certify that:

1. The number shown on this form is my correct taxpayer identification number (or I am waiting for a number to be issued to me), and
2. I am not subject to backup withholding because: (a) I am exempt from backup withholding, or (b) I have not been notified by the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) that I am subject to backup withholding as a result of a failure to report all interest or dividends, or (c) the IRS has notified me that I am no longer subject to backup withholding, and
3. I am a U.S. citizen or other U.S. person (defined below), and
4. The FATCA code(s) entered on this form (if any) indicating that I am exempt from FATCA reporting is correct.

Certification instructions. You must cross out item 2 above if you have been notified by the IRS that you are currently subject to backup withholding because you have failed to report all interest and dividends on your tax return. For real estate transactions, item 2 does not apply. For mortgage interest paid, acquisition or abandonment of secured property, cancellation of debt, contributions to an individual retirement arrangement (IRA), and generally, payments other than interest and dividends, you are not required to sign the certification, but you must provide your correct TIN. See the instructions on page 3.

Please Note: NSS Life recommends that any Required Minimum Distribution (RMD) be distributed prior to any rollover or transfer to NSS Life. We assume no responsibility or liability for any IRS penalties or any other tax consequences resulting from an inaccurate RMD calculation or lack of RMD distribution for the tax year due to rollovers or transfers received during the current year.

- Direct Rollover:

- A direct rollover is a distribution of eligible rollover assets from one trustee directly to another trustee from one of the following to a Traditional IRA plan:
 - Employee sponsored retirement plan such as a traditional 401(k), profit sharing, ESOP, or defined benefit plan
 - Tax sheltered annuity such as a traditional 403(b) plan
 - Governmental 457 plan
- Direct rollover funds are made payable directly to National Slovak Society FBO.
- A direct rollover is reportable but not taxable. There is no limit on the amount of direct rollovers that can be done in a year.

- Indirect Rollover:

- An indirect rollover is a distribution of eligible rollover assets paid directly to the individual from one of the following and then deposited into a Traditional IRA plan:
 - Employee sponsored retirement plan such as a traditional 401(k), profit sharing, ESOP, or defined benefit plan
 - Tax sheltered annuity such as a traditional 403(b) plan
 - Governmental 457 plan
 - Traditional IRA
 - Indirect rollover funds are made payable directly to the individual.
 - An indirect rollover is reportable but not taxable only if:
 - The funds you withdraw are re-deposited into the same or another IRA no later than 60 days after the date of the initial withdrawal,
AND
 - You do a tax free rollover only once a year. The one year wait period begins on the date of the initial withdrawal.
- Note: You must provide proof of the withdrawal date and the type of plan the money was withdrawn from, such as a copy of a statement or a copy of the original check.

- Direct Transfer:

- A direct transfer is a distribution of IRA assets from one trustee directly to another trustee for one of the following types of transactions:
 - Traditional IRA to Traditional IRA
 - Roth IRA to Roth IRA
 - Inherited Traditional IRA to Inherited Traditional IRA
 - Inherited Roth IRA to Inherited Roth IRA
 - SEP IRA to Traditional IRA
 - SIMPLE IRA to Traditional IRA (Only if two years have passed since the initial contribution to the SIMPLE IRA)
- Direct transfer funds are made payable directly to National Slovak Society FBO.
- A direct transfer is not reportable. There is no limit on the amount of direct transfers that can be done in a year.

IMPORTANT: The payment option selected could have both financial and tax implications of concern to the recipient. It is not the role of NSS Life to provide members with either financial or tax advice. They are urged to contact their personal financial advisor to determine the best payment option that is suitable for their situation and they should confer with their tax advisor with respect to the tax implications of any payment options being considered.
